How to build strong PPP institutions in developing countries: Capacity building & Funding and Financing

Thursday, July 7th from 8:00—10:30am EDT

JULY 7, 8:00AM-10:30AM EDT

BUILDING STRONG PPP INSTITUTIONS IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

The World Bank's Infrastructure Finance, PPPs & Guarantees (IPG) group, through the Public-Private Infrastructure Advisory Facility (PPIAF), completed a global review to better understand the drivers of success in PPP programs and distill collective experience in delivering support to PPP programs across the World Bank Group, to learn from other institutions and global experience, and to identify lessons on how we can better support our client countries. Following this global analysis, a series of Practice Notes are being developed, consolidating findings and lessons learned in five key areas: capacity building, legal and institutional frameworks, pipeline development and project preparation, funding and financing, and contract management. This first event will present the two practice notes focusing on:

1. The role of capacity building in delivering successful PPP programs, 8:00-9:00 am EDT
2. How government support through funding and financing impacts PPP Programs, 9:15-10:15 am EDT

8:00-10:30am EDT
